Internal Complaints

Internal Complaints Committee (ICC)

1. Introduction

The Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) is a statutory body established under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, also known as the POSH Act. The ICC is formed to ensure a safe, secure, and respectful environment for women employees and students in the workplace or educational institution. The committee serves as a preventive, prohibitive, and redressal mechanism for issues related to sexual harassment and ensures that all individuals are treated with dignity and equality. The ICC promotes awareness, conducts sensitization programs, and addresses complaints in a confidential and unbiased manner.

2. Objectives

- To prevent and prohibit any form of sexual harassment at the workplace or educational institution.
- To create awareness among staff and students about the rights, responsibilities, and laws related to sexual harassment.
- To provide a safe and confidential platform for victims to lodge complaints.
- To conduct fair and impartial inquiries into complaints received.
- To recommend corrective actions or disciplinary measures wherever necessary.
- To foster a culture of respect, equality, and safety for all members of the organization.

3. Responsibilities of the ICC

- Receiving and acknowledging complaints of sexual harassment.
- Conducting inquiries and investigations in accordance with the provisions of the POSH Act.
- Maintaining confidentiality of proceedings and ensuring fairness for both complainant and respondent.
- Submitting annual reports on the number of cases received, disposed, and pending.
- Organizing workshops, training sessions, and awareness programs on gender sensitization and workplace ethics.
- Advising the management on policies related to prevention of sexual harassment.
